

Dear Donor,

Literacy Volunteers of Niagara County (LVNC) is planning its second annual fundraiser and we need your support. Last year's dinner theater event raised almost $8,000—money that was used specifically to purchase training materials and schedule new tutor training programs to assist the one in seven adults who are functionally illiterate in Niagara County. New York State's ongoing budget crisis however, and a concurrent drop in donations have made this year's fundraising effort even more critical.

Enclosed you will find a flyer for a special evening featuring Mike Randall in his critically acclaimed role as Mark Twain on Saturday, March 27th at the historic Palace Theater in Lockport.

We hope you will strongly consider sponsorship of this event by purchasing an advertisement in the event program that will be distributed to all who attend. Enclosed is a donor form with sponsorship levels ranging from $50 to $1,000. We are also seeking basket donations or items for a raffle which will be held the evening of our event.

If you prefer, you may contribute directly to Literacy Volunteers. Our website www.niagarareads.org now features secure online donation capability, plus provides information about LVNC services and our impact on the community.

Please remember that any contribution to this event or donations to LVNC are tax-deductible.

On behalf of Literacy Volunteers of Niagara County, thank you in advance for your generosity. We hope you will join us in celebrating spring by enjoying an evening with Mark Twain.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Morris, President
